

daughter, in the absence of the child's mother, for extended periods of time due to her employment, and permitting the defendant to visit his ailing 74 year-old mother in Woodbury, New York, with the consent of the United States (Ralph J. Marra, Jr., Acting United States Attorney; Mark J. McCarren, Assistant United States Attorney appearing); and it appearing that stated authority is required by the United States Probation Department in order to permit same, and the Court having considered this matter, and for other good cause shown;

IT IS on this 8 day of May, 2009,

HEREBY ORDERED that the Probation Department is authorized to permit defendant, on appropriate notice, to perform the following activities:

1. Drive and pick up his 14 year-old daughter from school;
2. Drive and pick up his 14 year-old daughter to and from and extracurricular school recreational activities after school;
3. Drive and pick up his 14 year-old daughter to and from any and all recreational sporting events and extracurricular school activities that she is involved in on other occasions;
4. Drive to and pick up his 14 year-old daughter from any and all medical appointments;
5. Drive to and pick up his 14 year-old daughter from friends' homes;

6. Drive to and return from food shopping and other necessary shopping;

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Probation Department is authorized to permit defendant, on appropriate notice, to visit his 74 year-old ailing mother in Woodbury, Long Island, New York.

By:

HON. WILLIAM H. WALLS,
Senior United States District Judge